

Factsheet

The Police Want to Talk to Me

Easy English

The police may want to talk to you because

- a crime happened to you

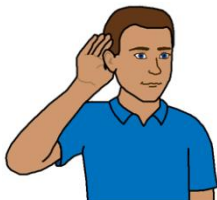

- you saw a crime happen

- you did a crime

- you know a crime happened

When the police talk to you

- listen

- be calm and polite

- you can tell them you have a disability

It is ok to tell the police

- what support you need

- your name

- where you live

- when you were born

- that you have a disability

Do not say anything else.

Police can use what you say against you in court.

It is ok to ask the police

- to call a person you trust

Name _____

Phone _____

For more help you can also call

- Advocacy for Inclusion

(02) 6257 4005

- Victims support ACT

1800 822 272