

Voting Kit

Australian Federal Election 2022

Easy English
2022

Easy English

Hard Words

This toolkit has some hard words.

The first time we write a hard word

- The hard word is in blue
- We will write what the hard word means

You can get help with this toolkit.

You can get someone to help you

- read this toolkit
- know what it says
- find more information

This toolkit is about

- the Federal Election 2022

- how to find information about who to vote for

- some ideas to help you decide who to vote for.

For information on

- how to enrol to vote in the Federal Election

- how to vote

go to the Australian Electoral Commission website

Information for people with disability or mobility restrictions - Australian Electoral Commission \(aec.gov.au\)

Federal Election

The Federal Election is

MAY 2022

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
1	2	3	4	5	6	7
8	9	10	11	12	13	14
15	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29	30	31	1	2	3	4

- Saturday 21 May 2022

The election is when we choose who will work for us in the Australian Government.

On election day, people from Australia will vote.

When you vote, you help choose who is part of the Australian Parliament.

Parliament is a part of the government that makes the laws for Australia.

You must vote if you

- are over the age of 18 years

- you are an Australian citizen.

It is your right to vote.

When you vote, you show

- your voice matters

- you have power.

How does the Federal election work?

The Australian Parliament has 2 parts. We call the parts houses.

The 2 houses are

- House of Representatives
- Senate

The House of Representatives

- has 151 members
- is where the Australian Government forms.

The Senate

- has 76 members
- works with the government to make decisions about Australian laws.

In a federal election you do 2 votes.

The first vote helps choose your local member in the House of Representatives

Your local member is the person who speaks for you and your electorate.

Your electorate is the area you live in.

You can find your electorate here:

Find my electorate \(aec.gov.au\)

13 23 26

My electorate is

Every electorate has 1 member in the House of Representatives.

You can find who your current member of your electorate is here:

Members of the House of Representatives | Directory

The member for my electorate now is:

The second vote helps choose your local senators.

Your local senators are the people who speak for you and your State or Territory in the Senate.

Every State has 12 senators.

The ACT and the Northern Territory have 2 senators.

You can find a list of current senators for your State or Territory here

List of Senators – Parliament of Australia \(aph.gov.au\)

Who can I vote for?

Who you vote for is your decision.

You vote for political parties and candidates in your electorate.

A political party is a group of people who

- share the same ideas
- agree on how government should run in Australia.

A candidate is a person who wants to be in parliament.

A candidate can be

- a part of a political party or

- independent.

Each electorate has different candidates you can vote for.

The candidates want to represent you in the next Parliament.

Represent means to speak for you and your electorate when government makes decisions.

Who are the candidates in my electorate?

You can find information about who you can vote for

- in your letterbox – candidates often send pamphlets

- on posters at the side of roads

- on TV and radio

- in newspapers

- on the internet

You can find all the candidates in your electorate online here:

Who are my candidates - Australian Electoral Commission \(aec.gov.au\)

Find some candidates in your area.

House of Representatives candidates

Liberal

- _____

Labor

- _____

Nationals

- _____

Greens

- _____

Other parties and Independents

- _____
- _____
- _____

Find some candidates in your area.

Senate candidates

Liberal

- _____

Labor

- _____

Nationals

- _____

Greens

- _____

Other parties and Independents

- _____
- _____
- _____

My Electorate has many candidates.

How can I decide who to vote for?

Before you vote in an election, it is a good idea to think about

- what is important to you

- what things you want the Australian government to change.

This information can help you decide who you want to vote for.

Topics that might be important to you

- health

- cost of living

- jobs

- education

- environment

- disability and aged care

What is important to me?

Think about what is important to you.

Example

Work is important to me because I want to earn money and be in the community.

Write down some things that are important to you.

- _____
- _____
- _____

What things do I want the Australian Government to change?

Think about some things that you want the government to change.

Example

I want the government to make it easier for young people to buy a house.

Write down some things you want the Australian Government to change.

- _____
- _____
- _____

How can I find out which candidates have the same ideas as me?

Candidates have different ideas and promises about how they can make Australia a better place.

To find out what candidates in your electorate promise to do, you can

- go to the website of a candidate

- phone a candidate

- talk to a candidate if you see one in your area.

You can find information about all the electorates and candidates here:

Electorates A-Z - ABC News

How do I vote?

On election day, you go to a polling place to vote.

A polling place is a building, like a school or community centre, where people go to vote in an election.

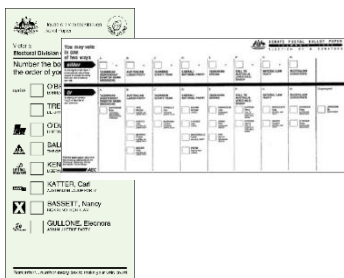

You can find your nearest polling place here:

Where can I vote in the 2022 federal election - Australian Electoral Commission \(aec.gov.au\)

My nearest polling place

At the polling place, you will get 2 bits of paper.

- green
- white

House of Representatives
Electoral Division of [Name]
Number the boxes from 1 to 6 in the order of your choice

1	TRICOT, Jessica	ALP
2	ODDER, Kelly	LIB
3	BALL, Jason	IND
4	KORNEZOV, Robert	IND
5	KATTEL, Carl	IND
6	HASSETT, Nancy	IND
7	GULLONE, Eleanor	IND

The green paper is for the House of Representatives.

Senate
Electoral Division of [Name]
Number the boxes from 1 to 12 in the order of your choice

1	[Candidate]	[Party]
2	[Candidate]	[Party]
3	[Candidate]	[Party]
4	[Candidate]	[Party]
5	[Candidate]	[Party]
6	[Candidate]	[Party]
7	[Candidate]	[Party]
8	[Candidate]	[Party]
9	[Candidate]	[Party]
10	[Candidate]	[Party]
11	[Candidate]	[Party]
12	[Candidate]	[Party]

The white paper is for the Senate.

You write numbers next to the candidates you want to vote for.

House of Representatives
Electoral Division of [Name]
Number the boxes from 1 to 8 in the order of your choice

2	SURNAME, Given Names	INDEPENDENT
3	SURNAME, Given Names	PARTY
7	SURNAME, Given Names	PARTY
8	SURNAME, Given Names	PARTY
1	SURNAME, Given Names	PARTY
5	SURNAME, Given Names	PARTY

Number 1 is your first choice.

You can learn more about how to vote here:

https://www.aec.gov.au/About_AEC/Publications/easy-read/files/vote-polling-place-easy-eng.pdf

You can practice voting here:

https://www.aec.gov.au/Voting/How_to_vote/practice/

What if I can not vote on election day?

You can vote in other ways, like

- at a polling place before the election

- postal vote

You can find information about other ways to vote here:

Information for people with disability or mobility restrictions - Australian Electoral Commission
(aec.gov.au)

Advocacy for Inclusion wrote the Easy English

Contact details

2.02 Griffin Centre, 20 Genge Street Canberra City ACT 2601

Phone: 6257 4005

Email: info@advocacyforinclusion.org

ABN: 90 670 934 099

Image Acknowledgments

Picture Communication Symbols © 1981-2010 by Myer-Johnson LLC. All Rights Reserved Worldwide. Used with permission. Boardmaker™ is a trademark of Myer-Johnson LLC. Myer-Johnson LLC P.O box 1579.

Solana Beach, CA 92075. Phone 858-550-0084